

COWETA COUNTY, GEORGIA CHIEF BUILDING OFFICIAL

Coweta County, Georgia (133,180), one of the largest and fastest growing counties in the state, is seeking highly qualified candidates for the position of Chief Building Official.

The Chief Building Official is the head of the County Building Inspection and Code Enforcement Department, which is responsible for reviewing plans and conducting inspections related to the proper construction and maintenance of all buildings in unincorporated Coweta County. The inspections help insure public safety, health and general welfare by utilization of uniform building, electrical, plumbing, mechanical, heating and air-conditioning, general construction codes and County ordinances regarding building, zoning, landscaping and other related development. The Chief Building Official is responsible for ensuring all phases of residential, commercial, and industrial construction work are properly permitted and inspected in compliance with applicable codes and ordinances.

Minimum requirements for the position include a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university with major coursework in business, building technology, construction management, public administration, or a closely related field; certification as a Georgia Building Official or Plans Examiner; and ten years' experience in general construction, building development and/or building inspection services or equivalent, with a minimum of five years' experience in a supervisory role. The ideal candidate will have extensive work experience in a comparable or larger organization and working knowledge of current building codes and inspection practices. The County may consider substitutions of education, training or experience on a case by case basis; as long as the candidate can demonstrate the ability to properly perform the essential functions of the position. Experience working with and knowledge of, the use of technology is a plus. Candidates must have a favorable background investigation as determined by a review of Federal, State and Local reporting agencies. A full profile describing the position and the County may be viewed at <https://waters-company.recruitmenthome.com/postings/1052>.

The salary for the position is negotiable depending upon the candidate's qualifications and experience. Coweta County offers excellent benefits including, but not limited to, participation in a defined contribution retirement plan, vacation and sick leave, group life insurance, health insurance, professional dues and conference expenses.

The application deadline is September 16, 2016. To be considered, please submit a cover letter, résumé with salary history and five (5) professional references to:

Ms. Patricia Palmer, Director, Community and Human Resources
22 East Broad Street
Newnan, Georgia 30263
ppalmer@coweta.ga.us

Following the deadline, the County will review and screen all application materials and contact those selected to interview.

Coweta County is an Equal Opportunity Employer